A detailed, sepia-toned illustration of a large, ornate building, likely a government or institutional structure, surrounded by dense foliage and trees. The building features multiple stories, a prominent central tower, and a large, arched entrance. The scene is framed by a decorative border.
